

NORTHERN KENTUCKY UNIVERSITY
FACULTY POSITION ANNOUNCEMENT

TENURE TRACK ASSISTANT OR ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR CRIMINAL JUSTICE

DEPARTMENT OF POLITICAL SCIENCE AND CRIMINAL JUSTICE

The Department of Political Science and Criminal Justice at Northern Kentucky University invites applications for a tenure track position in Criminal Justice at the Assistant or Associate Professor level beginning August 2010. A Ph.D. in Criminal Justice or related field is required by appointment. Area of specialization is open, but candidates specializing in crime prevention, emergency management, and criminal justice administration preferred. Commitment to undergraduate instruction, scholarship and publication, and service to the university and community are expected. The department has 31 full-time faculty members and offers bachelor degrees in criminal justice, international studies, organizational leadership, and political science, and an accredited master degree in public administration. Candidates who may also contribute to the Master of Public Administration program are desired. Our department is built on values that emphasize the multidimensional excellence among faculty, a learner-centered education, and collaboration across all academic programs of the department and the university.

Northern Kentucky University (www.nku.edu), founded in 1968, is located just seven miles south of Cincinnati, Ohio. Known for its small classes and for engaging students in service-learning, NKU enrolls 16,000 students and is the fastest growing university in the commonwealth. The local area offers a range of cultural activities and professional sporting events. NKU is an equal opportunity/affirmative action university. Minority candidates are encouraged to apply. Review of applications begins on October 15, 2009, and continues until the position is filled. A criminal background screening is required.

To apply: Please send a letter of application, vitae, evidence of teaching quality, and a list of three references to: Dr. Amy Thistlethwaite (thistlethwai@nku.edu), CJ Search Committee Chair, Department of Political Science and Criminal Justice, Founders Hall 427 G, Northern Kentucky University, Highland Heights, Kentucky 41099.

NORTHERN KENTUCKY UNIVERSITY
FACULTY POSITION ANNOUNCEMENT

TENURE TRACK ASSISTANT OR ASSOCIATE PROFESSOR
ORGANIZATIONAL LEADERSHIP (3 Positions)

DEPARTMENT OF POLITICAL SCIENCE AND CRIMINAL JUSTICE

The Department of Political Science and Criminal Justice at Northern Kentucky University invites applications for three (3) tenure track position in Organizational Leadership at the Assistant or Associate Professor level beginning August 2010. A terminal degree (PhD, DPA, EdD, DBA, or LLM) including 18 hours of graduate leadership-related coursework required by appointment; a JD alone is not considered a terminal degree for this position. Area of specialization is open, but candidates from interdisciplinary programs with a specialization in leadership studies preferred. Additional preferences include: candidates with administrative and/or leadership experience in public, private, or non-profit sector; candidates experienced in online delivery and pedagogy; candidates with evidence of scholarship including peer-reviewed research focused on leadership; and candidates who may contribute to the department's international studies or public administration programs.

Commitment to undergraduate instruction, scholarship and publication, and service to the university and community are expected. The department has 31 full-time faculty members and offers bachelor degrees in criminal justice, international studies, organizational leadership, and political science, and an accredited master degree in public administration. Our department is built on values that emphasize the multidimensional excellence among faculty, a learner-centered education, and collaboration across all academic programs of the department and the university.

Northern Kentucky University (www.nku.edu), founded in 1968, is located just seven miles south of Cincinnati, Ohio. Known for its small classes and for engaging students in service-learning, NKU enrolls 16,000 students and is the fastest growing university in the commonwealth. The local area offers a range of cultural activities and professional sporting events. NKU is an equal opportunity/affirmative action university. Minority candidates are encouraged to apply. Review of applications begins on October 15, 2009, and continues until the position is filled. A criminal background screening is required.

To apply: Please send a letter of application, vitae, evidence of teaching quality, and a list of three references to: Dr. Shamima Ahmed (ahmed@nku.edu), OL Search Committee Chair, Department of Political Science and Criminal Justice, Founders Hall 424 D, Northern Kentucky University, Highland Heights, Kentucky 41099.

